

Kansas Eviction Prevention Program

STRUGGLING TO COLLECT RENT DUE TO COVID?

The Kansas Eviction Prevention Program (KEPP) may be able to help.

The Kansas Eviction Prevention Program, funded through the CARES Act, authorized by Governor Kelly's SPARK Task Force, and administered by Kansas Housing Resources Corporation (KHRC), provides rental assistance to landlords whose tenants have missed one or more rental payment(s) due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

HOW IT WORKS

- + Landlords and tenants apply via a joint online process.
- + If the application is approved, the landlord receives rental assistance funds directly from KEPP.
- + Landlord accepts KEPP funds as rental payment and waives late fee(s) for the month(s) assistance is awarded.
- + Approved tenants are eligible for a maximum of nine months of assistance, not to exceed $5,000 per household.

Unlocking Home

YOU MAY QUALIFY FOR THIS PROGRAM IF YOU AND YOUR TENANT(S) MEET ALL OF THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

- + Tenant(s) have missed at least one rental payment since April 1, 2020.
- + Tenant and all of their household member(s), if applicable, are Kansas resident(s) legally authorized to be in the United States.
- + Tenant is seeking rental assistance for their primary residence.
- + Neither you nor your tenant have received rental assistance from other sources for the month(s) for which you are requesting assistance.
- + Tenant(s) can demonstrate that the COVID pandemic has had an adverse impact on their employment or income beginning January 20, 2020 or later. Adverse effects may include layoff due to mandated shutdowns and/or business closure, job loss, reduction of hours, or inability to work due to COVID-related illness or lack of childcare.
- + Tenant's household income is at or below 85 percent of the state median income, or $63,920 for a household of four.

IF TENANT QUALIFIES FOR TANF, SNAP, OR LIEAP ASSISTANCE, THEY AUTOMATICALLY MEET THE PROGRAM'S INCOME REQUIREMENTS.
